	11.1.2007 Shri Sanjay K. Agrawal, counsel for the petitioner. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that by the instant petition, the petitioner has challenged the proceedings under Section 147, 148 of the Income Tax Act. However, during pendency of this petition, final order has already been passed by respondent No. 5 which has been challenged by the petitioner by filing another writ petition, therefore, the instant petition has become infructuous. In view of above, the instant petition is dismissed as having become infructuous. Sd/- Dhirendra Mishra Judge
